PREMIER KING TO MAKE TOUR ON PRAIRIES B.C. STARTS ELECTION FIGHT IN EARNEST

ALMOST ALL RIDINGS PLAN TO NOMINATE CANDIDATES THIS WEEK; MANY CHOSEN ALREADY

Prominent Men Likely to Enter Lists to Fight for Mackenzie King Government's Western Policy; Vigorous Battle Planned to Increase British Columbia's Liberal Delegation at Ottawa; Dr. King Renominated in Kootenay; Tolmie to Be Renominated Here To-night.

With candidates in the field in practically every riding of British Columbia the Federal election campaign will be on in real earnest by the end of this week. The next five or six days will witness the selection of candidates of both the major political parties in most constituencies and indications are that the election fight in practically all cases will be between Liberals and Conservatives only.

Victoria Conservatives will launch their campaign to-night by renominating Hon. S. F. Tolmie at a convention in the Campbell Building. The convention is regarded as a mere formality as Dr. Tolmie has no serious opposition for the nomination. The Victoria member is returning here from Calgary after a hurried visit to the prairie city in his work of organizing the Conservative party throughout Canada.

TORY FORCES FACE SPLIT IN NANAIMO

Mayor Mutter of Duncan May Oppose C. H. Dickie For Federal Nomination

Several Others Approached to Contest Riding in Place of Present Member

Strife within the Conservative ranks in Nanaimo Federal constituency came to a head over the week-end, when a strong delegation of influential Conservatives, dissatisfied with the work of C. H. Dickie during the last Parliament, formally approached Mayor J. Islay Mutter of Duncan and urged him to stand for nomination at the Conservative convention at Duncan on Saturday evening.

In the course of the past twenty-five years, Mayor Mutter has only suffered defeat in one of more than a score of political contests, and his friends assert that he will prove a stronger standard bearer than Mr. Dickie.

Mr. Massey, who is president of the Massey-Harris Company, will contest a constituency in Ontario.

The addition of Mr. Massey to the Cabinet brings the number of Ministers without portfolios to four. They are Hon. J. E. Sinclair, Prince Edward Island; Hon. H. B. McEwen, Ontario; Hon. Herbert Marler, Quebec; and Mr. Massey.

Mr. McGivern has definitely announced his intention of retiring from public life.

It is understood Sheriff Charles Macdonald, whom some have been urging to seek the Burrard Liberal nomination will arrive on the same train from the Okanagan, where he has been spending his vacation.

A dispatch from Nelson last night said: Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, and Mrs. King, passed through here from Cranbrook on his way to the coast. In British Columbia the onion crop is estimated to be 130 per cent. of 1924, and the potato crop also 130 per cent. of last year, or more than 2,200,000 hundredweight.

Assizes in Coal City Have Been Set to Begin Oct. 27

Vancouver, Sept. 14.—Two more suspects, Alfred Castro and Ed. Gorman, believed to have been implicated in the $42,000 Nanaimo bank robbery, were lodged in the Okalla jail this morning. Provincial police brought the two men from Seattle last night on the steamer Princess Kathleen.

The pair will await trial at the coming assizes with Ross C. Watson, ex-detective of Seattle, who has not been able to secure bonds to meet a reduction from $10,000 to $5,000 in bail. One man, Harry Stone, is serving a sentence of eight years in the New Westminster penitentiary following his recent confession, and three other men are held in King County jail in Seattle pending extradition proceedings. The men brought here this morning were recently arrested and extradited.

Inspector Forbes-Cruikshank, of the provincial police, who has made several trips to Seattle, spent the morning at Okalla with the new arrivals. He met the vessel on its arrival here and escorted the officers and their prisoners to the prison farm.

It is expected the two men will be taken to Nanaimo shortly for preliminary hearings. (Concluded on page 2)

B.C. TORIES ARE CALLED "TRAITORS"

Stevens and Other Leading Conservatives Betrayed Province, Woodward Charges

Cannot Square Their Old Hostility Towards Low Rates With Present Stand

Conservative members of Parliament from Mainland ridings are being subjected to severe criticism in their attitude towards the freight rate problem. "Renegades and traitors" to the interests of their city and their Province were the terms in which Charles Woodward, M.P., described Hon. H. H. Stevens and other B.C. Conservative members in a speech in Vancouver last week.

"Mr. Stevens in the Provincial election declared that equalized freight rates would be a bad thing for B.C.," said Mr. Woodward. "How is he going to square himself now that we have equalization in grain rates, for, thanks to the action taken by the Mackenzie King Government, we have them, and no. Montreal Board of Trade is going to take them away from us."

"That Montreal attack may be the best thing in the world for us and will teach us that we have to fight with a united front to win this battle and hold our ground."

Mr. Woodward said that the welfare of British Columbia would be at stake in the coming election and he urged electors to cast aside party prejudice and vote for Liberal candidates who would support the Liberal Government in its great Western policy.

J. Edward Sears, president of the Vancouver Liberal Association, who presided at a preliminary rally for the election campaign, declared that the election resolved itself into a suit between Stevens and British Columbia in which the Liberal Party was the advocate for B.C. and the people were the judge and jury.

INTERESTS ATTACKED
 "We must break the strange hold which the Eastern dominated Tory party has on the port of Vancouver," declared Mr. Sears.

"What have your Conservative members done for this city?" Mr. Stevens claims that he built up a grain elevator.

"He stopped when he had given his friends the nice fat contract, building it, because if it ever handled a bushel of grain it would stop the toes of his Eastern friends."

Premier Oliver and his able advocate Mr. McGeer, who fought the battle which brought the grain movement to Vancouver.

TWO MEN BROUGHT TO B.C. FOR TRIAL

Inary hearing before Magistrate Beaver-Potts.

The Nanaimo assizes are to start October 27.

MOVED QUIETLY
 Seattle, Sept. 14.—Two of the five prisoners held in the King County jail here on the Nanaimo bank robbery charge, Alfred Castro and Ed. Gorman, were quietly taken to British Columbia from their cells last night to await trial. With extradition granted recently, two Canadian officers came for their prisoners. As announced, taking them on the late steamer for Vancouver.

With the arrival of Albert Castro and E. A. Gorman at Oakalla this morning under a guard of the British Columbia provincial police, four men held in connection with the Nanaimo bank robbery case are now on Canadian soil. It was stated by the authorities in Victoria to-day.

Leaving Victoria, Inspector Forbes Cruickshank met a guard from the Vancouver detachment in Seattle and received into custody the two men for whom writs of extradition had been executed.

Gorman and Castro were delivered over to the Canadian officers for presentation of the formal papers at the King County jail, Seattle.

Ross C. Watson, held for trial in connection with the same affair, and Harry Stone, recently sentenced in Nanaimo to eight years' imprisonment with twenty lashes, are the two other men to be received on Canadian soil. Bagley and Johnston, two others for whom extradition warrants have been requested, are still on United States soil awaiting the result of the appeal from a tradition order.

not to deal with the subject of Communism. He, however, has stated he intends to go at any cost, and that he can sign the agreement without receding from his beliefs and principles.

CANADA'S ATTITUDE

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—Disunion in the party of British parliamentarians who shortly are to visit Canada and the United States over the inclusion in the party of S. Saklatvala, communist M.P., is not in any way affecting the plans of the Canadians to entertain the visitors. It was learned here to-day that these plans are going ahead with a vengeance, and it was pointed out Canada does not attempt to rule on the eligibility of any of the personnel to participate in the tour, which is under the auspices of the Empire Parliamentary Association.

Canada will receive the party as it is constituted in London, and no distinction will be made between the members.

It was definitely learned that the Immigration Department has not even considered the possibility of challenging Mr. Saklatvala's right to enter Canada. He will enter as any other tourist and his absence of Canadian laws will be taken for granted.

It is recalled the British delegation to the Empire Congress conference in Canada, in 1922, included several Liberals who frankly espoused extreme radical views, not only in their private life but at public gatherings at which the delegates were being entertained. The Canadian authorities did not find it necessary to interfere with those delegates in their tour of Canada.

ALMOST ALL RIDINGS PLAN TO NOMINATE CANDIDATES THIS WEEK

T. W. Fletcher is a former reeve of Point Grey. He is a leading property holder in that municipality and one of the most popular residents there.

KING RENOMINATED

Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works and British Columbia representative in the Cabinet, was renominated by acclamation at a convention of East Kootenay Liberals over the weekend. Dr. King, who was present at the convention, told his supporters that British Columbia has gained many distinct and important advantages as result of the work of the Mackenzie King Government. He cited the successful efforts of the Government to build up coast cities by increasing the output of the present boom on copper which aided interior mineral development, and reduction in taxation which had helped the country.

Re-election is regarded as a foregone conclusion not only on account of his popularity in the district, where he has lived most of his life, but because of his present position in his position in Ottawa.

Frederick Stork, Liberal, who has represented Prince Rupert in Parliament since last election, was renominated last week. He will be opposed by George Hushby, formerly a well-known Victoria resident, the Conservative nominee.

YALE PROSPECTS

In Yale the names of Col. Edgott, recently elected president of the provincial command of Great War Veterans Association, and Dr. K. C. MacDonald, formerly member of the Legislature for North Okanagan, are mentioned as possible Liberal nominees.

Conservative member for the riding at by-election last year, is likely to have a battle for the nomination with Reeve Kirkpatrick, of Princeton.

C. H. Dunbar, Conservative candidate for Cariboo, having dropped out of the fight through ill health, another convention has been called in that riding for September 21. John Fraser, of Quenell, formerly member of the Legislature, is considered a likely prospect.

ELGIN MUNRO, SITTING MEMBER FOR CHILLIWACK, WILL BE RENOMINATED FOR THAT RIDING WITH LITTLE OPPOSITION, IT IS BELIEVED.

NEW WESTMINSTER BATTLE

Liberals will make a determined fight to wrest New Westminster from W. G. McQuarrie, the present Conservative member. Willie Gray, one of the most prominent municipal leaders in British Columbia, is likely to carry the Liberal standard. Mr. Gray's strength in New Westminster is so great that his supporters are confident that he will carry the seat.

In Kootenay West it is expected that L. W. Humphrey, elected as a Farmer-Labor, Anti-Meighen candidate, will be re-elected.

YOUNG WOMAN IN NEW YORK MURDERED

Police Looking For Well Dressed Young Man Known on Broadway

New York, Sept. 14.—Bruised and the clothes torn to shreds, the body of Catherine Gore, twenty-four, was found yesterday in the rear of the East Side rooming house where she had lived. Police said they were seeking a well-dressed young man, a tabular of Broadway, with whom the young woman was last seen. They believe Miss Gore's death was a murder and died because of an attack by him.

Miss Gore attended a theatre Saturday night for the first time in two years after performing the same and her young woman companion met them home. Miss Gore was last seen leaving the theatre with a young man of her home with one of the young men.

The murdered girl's parents died years ago and she was brought up by her mother. The East Side district, in which the little crippled girl was well known, is thoroughly incensed over the crime.

Know What Is Best

Warning to seekers of beauty

When your complexion is at stake, use a soap made solely to foster good complexions

PALMOLIVE Soap is made for ONE purpose only . . . to foster good complexions. It is not intended for laundry work. Not even for fine fabrics. It is a skin soap alone. To protect your skin, that is the only kind of soap that you should use.

In old days, women were told, "use no soap on your faces." For soaps were too harsh. Then Palmolive came. A soap made of cosmetic oils. A soap made to be used freely, lavishly on the skin.

Women tried it, and were amazed. They told others—and better complexions resulted. Palmolive soon became the leading toilet soap of the world. In France, home of cosmetics, it became a leader. French women largely discarded French soaps for Palmolive. Today Palmolive Soap is one of the two largest selling toilet soaps in France.

That is because Palmolive is a unique creation, based on 60 years of soap study. A soap made solely to guard your youthful charm.

But on your skin, don't expect the cosmetic results of Palmolive from any soap claimed to be good for all purposes . . . No "jack-of-all-trades" soap should be used for your complexion.

Don't let anyone mislead you into believing that ordinary toilet soaps, or cleansing soaps, will bring you Palmolive results. They won't—no ordinary soap can.

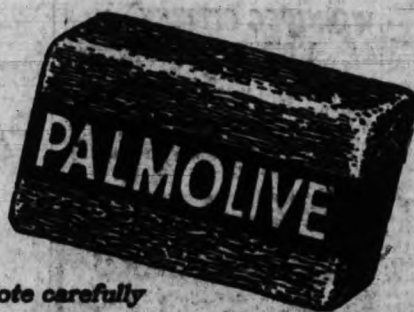

There are soaps at 25 cents and over, which approach Palmolive in results. But Palmolive sells for 10 cents . . . no more than ordinary soaps. Enormous production brings you this modest cost.

Wash, launder, cleanse with any soap you wish. But when beauty is at stake, take care. Use Palmolive, a soap you know is safe to use. It is nature's formula to "Keep That Schoolgirl Complexion."

FOR GERMS

Soaps to "destroy" germs should be used only by advice of a physician. All soaps "remove" germs to a certain degree. Palmolive will "remove" germs as well as any soap safe for toilet use. The real difference in soaps is in their action on your skin. Some are too harsh, others crudely blended. Palmolive Soap is a unique creation, a blend of rare cosmetic oils; a soap made for one purpose only, to foster good complexions. Don't expect Palmolive complexion results from any strong "medicated" soap, from any "jack-of-all-trades" soap, from any soap claiming alike for fabric washing and the skin.

(MADE IN CANADA)

Note carefully the name and wrapper. Palmolive is never sold unwrapped.

TARIFF SHAMS

IN RELIEF AGAINST THE controversy which is now going on between the President of the American Federation of Labor and the textile manufacturers of the New England states stands the fact that in spite of record-breaking duties the sixth largest manufacturing industry in the United States, with more than half a million workers, is seriously languishing and cutting wages—a condition which the high protectionists of this country can not dismiss with a wave of the hand.

The chief executive of the Federation has made it clear that his organization is preparing to attack the tariff in the next Congress. In his announcement and threat there is evidence of a long-pent anger. It recalls the fact that in the Summer of 1924 dozens of cotton mills were shut down, but the Republicans wished no exposure of their tariff failure. Last January the ten-per-cent wage cuts began; in July they were widely extended and the Labor chieftain, in the words of The New York World, can point to the fact that the tariff schedules—drawn up under Senator Lodge's supervision and repeatedly praised by President Coolidge—were rammed down the throat of the public on the plea that they would maintain wages intact. Where are such pretenses now?

The World goes on to point out that unquestionably there are varied reasons why the cotton industry is depressed. President Coolidge has attributed it to overexpansion during the war, changes in fashions and growing Southern competition in coarse fabrics, with some European competition in fine goods. Mr. Hoover emphasized changes in the consumers' demand. But one fact is certain. The depression has spectacularly exploded the theory that the tariff wall is a magic cure-all and preservative for every industry it surrounds. "Every four years the Republican orators repeat this gospel. It is the tariff that makes business good and wages high. It is lack of a high tariff that makes business bad and wages low—we can imagine how they would exploit such a depression under a Democratic tariff. Yet, as already mentioned, the fact remains that the textile industry is languishing and cutting wages behind its high wall of protection.

It is obvious that the Federation's threat has considerable political importance. Our New York contemporary and other influential journals in the neighboring republic are noting ominous signs of North-western discontent with a tariff which gives the farmer almost nothing and taxes him on everything he buys. If organized labor and agriculture join hands against it, the movement will be formidable. But whether it bears immediate fruit or not, every exposure of tariff shams is valuable. The textile troubles in the United States at least are a gigantic object-lesson in the falsity of ultra-protectionist claims.

GOOD BUSINESS

WESTERN CANADA'S railway map underwent a considerable change last Friday afternoon when the last spike was driven in the Canadian National branch line that will now connect Kelowna with Kamloops. This new line brings the most prolific growing and shipping centre of fruit and vegetables in Western Canada into direct railway communication with the outside market. And as a result of this important development a large acreage, which it was previously impracticable to farm because of excessive cost of transportation to point of shipment, is producing crops this year that will be worth something like $250,000, and this merely represents a small beginning of the activity on this tract. It is predicted that next year will see a very large increase of acreage under cultivation.

Of special importance to the communities that will be served by the new line is the fact that the Canadian Pacific Railway will also enjoy running rights. This means an excellent service to all points in respect of both passenger and freight traffic and should result in the fullest possible measure of activity. At least it may be confidently expected that a new impetus will be given to more than one form of development in that section of the Interior—development which will make itself felt in other parts of the Province. It is excellent business from the Canadian National Railway point of view. It did not take Sir Henry Thornton long to make up his mind about the project. The people of the district have waited nearly fourteen years for it. His part in speeding it up was warmly appreciated when Kelowna's population turned out to celebrate the driving of the last spike.

WHY WORRY ABOUT HIM

SO FAR THREE MEMBERS of the British House of Commons have signified their intention of dropping out of the Old Country delegation to the Inter-parliamentary Union meetings in Washington and Ottawa because Mr. Saklatvala, the Parsee Communist representative for North Battenese, will be one of the party.

This gentleman's attacks on the British Empire and the Union Jack are extreme and silly. He would change everything if he could have his way. But his ravings will have no real effect on either. To suggest that he is a dangerous critic of British institutions or anything in the nature of a menace to the British Commonwealth is to endow him with influence and importance that he certainly does not possess.

Saklatvala's inclusion in the British delegation is a demonstration of toleration. It will give him an opportunity to air his views, well-known and humorously treated in Britain, in a wider field and before a more varied audience. That audience will soon get impatient if a Communist from Battenese wastes its time explaining his own pet models for remaking the world. Rather than remain away because of his presence in the delegation the members of the House of Commons who are refusing to make the trip should be on hand to assist in laughing him into silence.

In the meantime Mr. Saklatvala is probably chuckling at the large amount of advertising he is getting for nothing. He will no doubt say to himself that to be elevated from harmless insignificance to the status of a national and international figure is not to be "sneezed at."

GLOOM AND HUMOR

MR. MEIGHEN'S GLOOM is getting funny. He now says that if Canada does not raise her tariff on methods similar to those adopted by the United States "we might just as well bid good-bye to our nationhood and slide right down into the gulf." What on earth does he mean? This country's increasing trade, the reduction of the United States adverse balance from more than $300,000,000 to just a little over $80,000,000, a considerable decrease in unemployment, a reduction of the national debt, a bumper crop at good prices, economic stability warmly applauded by the financial experts of this and other countries, the Canadian dollar worth one hundred cents in New York and a good deal more elsewhere, and other equally encouraging signs are a long way from suggesting that our nationhood is in any danger or that we shall slide right down into the gulf. The truth of the matter is: Mr. Meighen has been in a state of chronic despair for so long that a gradual awakening to the fact that the country simply refuses to go to the bow-wows has driven him to the use of gloom with a dash of humor in it.

PRACTICAL PROSPECTS

CANADA IS FURNISHING Great Britain with a great deal of her butter these days. Alberta is doing an excellent and increasing trade with her as well as with Japan and China. But British Columbia is not in the butter-exporting business. Although its production has doubled in the past few years, an indication that the importance of the enterprise is being recognized, it is far below the amount required for provincial consumption. While precious little economic satisfaction may be extracted from this condition in a general way, it should at least suggest to the dairymen in business already that a large domestic and export market is ready to receive their product, and likewise furnish an incentive for others to come to British Columbia and put themselves in a position to take advantage of it.

Similar arguments may be applied to this Province's dependence upon outside producers in respect of its beef and mutton and pork requirements. The annual bill which has to be footed for these imports is a great deal too large and should be materially reduced. And if the members of the Legislature would forego some of their talking excursions during the often quite unproductive and protracted debate on the Address—frequently repeated during "Supply"—and consider ways and means of improving the prospects for these branches of British Columbia agriculture, their public service would be much more valuable. No Cabinet Minister is so appreciative of the usefulness of a debate that is not obscured by partisan fog. He may not agree with all the arguments advanced, his more intimate knowledge of the subject giving him an advantage over both critic and well-wisher, but it is a poor discussion that does not give him one new and practical idea.

WHO'S WHO IN HISTORY TO-DAY

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

SIR THOMAS OVERBURY

English miscellaneous writer, died in the Tower of London on Sept. 15, 1613. After studying at Oxford and traveling on the continent, he became the protégé of Robert Carr, Viscount Rochester. He incurred the enmity of Lady Essex by opposing a marriage between her and Carr, and was by her influence imprisoned in the Tower, where he was poisoned. He wrote "The Wife," "Characters" and "Crums Fall'n from King's James's Table."

EARL OF GODOLPHIN

English statesman and financier, died on Sept. 15, 1712. In his youth he was attached to the court of Charles II, and later entered Parliament. He was first lord of the treasury during the reign of William III, and after Queen Anne became premier and lord high treasurer.

LORD CAMPBELL

(John) British jurist, politician and author, was born in Fife, Scotland, on Sept. 15, 1773. He was Chief Justice of the Queen's bench for nine years, and Lord Chancellor of England for two years. He wrote "Lives of the Lord Chancellors" and "Lives of the Chief Justices."

LORD TREWENMOUTH

(Edward) Major (banker), English Liberal statesman, died on Sept. 15, 1899. After twelve years in the House of Commons he became chief Liberal whip, and later was successively Lord Privy Council, Lord Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, First Lord of Admiralty and Lord President of the Council.

U.S. WARGRAFT ON PROTECTION DUTY IN SOUTH

Situation Now Quiet at Nicaragua, it is Reported

Managua, Nicaragua, Sept. 14. (Canadian Press Cable)—Speaking at the Labor College conference here, A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, told his hearers they should remember they would get only what they were strong enough to take. The workers had either to control the economic situation or go under.

Answering the suggestion of someone in the meeting that they should "do as was done in Ireland," Cook said human life was too precious. They had the courage, but they did not need bombs.

"I have enough confidence in our soldiers," he said, "to know they will not turn their weapons on their fathers and brothers. The boys who are in the army are there because they were driven there by unemployment."

"It is better to fight with brains than bombs. The danger comes from the capitalist class, so let us take it up."

INDIGNATION VOICED

Cook's activities in Blackburn are possibly responsible for the awkward predicament of the committee of the Labor School of Glasgow, whose fourth annual conference attracted a record attendance, partly because the advertised speakers included the miners' secretary, S. Saklatvala, Communist member of the House of Commons for Battenese, and Professor Nearing of New York. Not one of the advertised speakers appeared at the conference, to the great disappointment of the gathering, which expressed deep indignation.

Speaking at Stockport, David Lloyd George alluded to the extremists in the Labor Party and said that in the direction of Trade Union Congress at Scarborough was seen the beginning of the penetration of the trade unions by the Communists. He added: "They cannot play pranks with the trade of Britain."

Amoy, China, Sept. 14. The boycott against Japanese shipping brought on by the anti-foreign strike was lifted Sunday. The boycott continues against the British.

TAXATION REDUCTION

To the Editor:—In your issue of September 12, under heading "Ten Per Cent Tax Reduction," Alderman Marchant twice mentioned me because I have declined to support his "taxation reduction" proposal.

My support is not forthcoming because, both as a member of the City Council and also as a heavy taxpayer—one who would gladly welcome taxation relief—it seems to me that the current proposal would be worse than the disease.

If annually the city continues to "pay as it goes," and "avoids borrow" and "the council nominate and elect city council, school boards and police commissioners that are efficient, business-like and economical," it is as nearly certain as anything can be that there will continue to be a steady improvement in Victoria's affairs, with annually reducing elvix taxes.

The simple requirements of the first part of the foregoing paragraph are all that is necessary. We are not starting financial experimenting now. Why?

I personally feel that Alderman Marchant deserves much credit for the effort he has been making in his proposals, and consequently greatly regret my inability to agree with his theories upon this subject.

A. E. TODD, Alderman.

MOTHERWELL IS FOR FREER IMMIGRATION

Minister of Agriculture Says Canada Should Welcome All Suitable Settlers

Selkirk, Man., Sept. 14.—"I don't think the time is far away when we shall have a minister for making it easy for people to come into Canada, and who will not be too 'pernickity' about the manured or drawing-room manners," said Mr. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, in an address at a Federal election campaign meeting here Saturday night.

"I don't care from what nationality they come. Canada needs men able and willing to work, and the atmosphere and teaching of the country can be relied upon to make them as good men as those who have already settled in the country have become."

Mr. Motherwell said Mr. Meighen's utterances were doing more harm to Canadian immigration than anything else.

There was, he said, preference among some people for selection and among others a preference for practically unrestricted immigration.

HUDSON BAY RAILWAY

Mr. Motherwell discussed the Hudson Bay Railway and declared it would soon be completed if the Liberal Party were returned to power with a clear majority in the House.

"Mr. Meighen has a very great deal to say about the railway," he said, "but he has an unfortunate habit of not sticking to the truth. At Stonewall Mr. Meighen said it was the Conservative Party that had started to build the Hudson Bay Railway, and that it would be the Conservative Party that would finish it."

Mr. Meighen was wrong, for it was the Liberal Party that started it, and the present Government has been maintaining the road in fair shape pending the time when it could be completed.

The public meeting at which Mr. Motherwell spoke, followed a Liberal convention at which Dr. W. H. G. Gibb, a former mayor of Selkirk, was nominated to contest the constituency for the Liberal Party.

A. J. COOK DECLARES BOMBS NOT NEEDED

Advices British Laborites to Fight With Brains, Not Missiles

Blackburn, Eng., Sept. 14. (Canadian Press Cable)—Speaking at the Labor College conference here, A. J. Cook, secretary of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, told his hearers they should remember they would get only what they were strong enough to take. The workers had either to control the economic situation or go under.

Answering the suggestion of someone in the meeting that they should "do as was done in Ireland," Cook said human life was too precious. They had the courage, but they did not need bombs.

"I have enough confidence in our soldiers," he said, "to know they will not turn their weapons on their fathers and brothers. The boys who are in the army are there because they were driven there by unemployment."

"It is better to fight with brains than bombs. The danger comes from the capitalist class, so let us take it up."

INDIGNATION VOICED

Cook's activities in Blackburn are possibly responsible for the awkward predicament of the committee of the Labor School of Glasgow, whose fourth annual conference attracted a record attendance, partly because the advertised speakers included the miners' secretary, S. Saklatvala, Communist member of the House of Commons for Battenese, and Professor Nearing of New York. Not one of the advertised speakers appeared at the conference, to the great disappointment of the gathering, which expressed deep indignation.

Speaking at Stockport, David Lloyd George alluded to the extremists in the Labor Party and said that in the direction of Trade Union Congress at Scarborough was seen the beginning of the penetration of the trade unions by the Communists. He added: "They cannot play pranks with the trade of Britain."

Amoy, China, Sept. 14. The boycott against Japanese shipping brought on by the anti-foreign strike was lifted Sunday. The boycott continues against the British.

TOURISTS CAME FROM LIMITS OF CONTINENT TO VICTORIA

Cars From the Sandwich Islands, Mexico and Hawaii Figured in Totals Carried by One Ferry Steamer of Many Flying in and Out of Port; Olympic Brought 5,534 Cars and 30,300 People.

Figures compiled by the Puget Sound Navigation Company for the operation of the ferry steamship Olympic between Victoria and Port Angeles for the Summer season show that 30,000 people and 5,534 cars passed through the city in a period of less than four months by that ferry alone.

The ferry Olympic is only one of the fleet operated by the Puget Sound Navigation Company, which in turn is but one of the enterprises handling cars and passengers in ferries affecting Victoria. The only available figures have reference to the ferry Olympic, as compiled by her purser at the close of the season's run, from May 23 to September 13.

The following scale shows an interesting light on the trend of travel to the Pacific Northwest and the decided tilt that was given that travel this year by increased advertising and other circumstances. Here are the car figures by states and provinces for the Olympic's season:

From	1924	1925
Washington	1986	2410
British Columbia	82	1440
Oregon	788	819
Idaho	50	83
Utah	10	11
Colorado	14	28
Texas	2	20
Illinois	10	17
Alberia	27	32
Manitoba	8	4
Ontario	2	1

Other states and provinces had varying figures between two and twenty, but in almost every instance the figures from each for 1925 were greatly in excess of those of last year.

In the total of 5,534 cars carried, bearing 30,300 people on the one ferry alone, forty-two states and provinces were represented, to say nothing of a few cars from Mexico, Hawaii and even the Sandwich Islands. The season, as will be seen from the dates, was less than four months in extent, the Olympic completing her last run yesterday.

$25,000 PRIZE FOR ATLANTIC FLIGHT

Washington, Sept. 14.—With Lieut. Col. and Lieut. Tarsaas preparing for an aeroplane flight from Paris to New York, attention is drawn to the fact that while there are several trophies both in the United States and France offered for outstanding events in aircraft performance, there is only one cash prize for an Atlantic flight now open to competition, as far as the officials of the National Aeronautic Association here are aware. This is the $25,000 prize offered by Raymond Orteig, a New York hotel man, and open to aviators crossing the Atlantic between Paris or the shores of France and New York on a non-stop flight, in either direction.

The money is now on deposit in a bank in New York and has been available since 1919. Mr. Orteig formally extended the time for the prize award until June 1, 1926.

Should a non-stop Transatlantic flight begin in New York, officials of the National Aeronautic Association would have charge of the official inspection. The Aero Club of France would handle the inspection at Paris.

Carl F. Schory, official timer of the National Aeronautic Association, explains that in non-stop flights, such as the Orteig prize contemplates, the gasoline tanks of the aircraft are sealed to prevent refilling. Officials are also able to keep tabs on the movements of a non-stop aircraft through use of a sealed barograph. This instrument, which looks like a small box, contains a recording pen which works in harmony with the pressure of the barometer and registers on a revolving cylinder the height at which a plane flies and the time it remains in the air.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

Although this may be a lively day
with sudden events precipitated of a radical nature, the auguries may not be read as fortunate. In fact, new ventures should be postponed, as there is a menace of losses and difficulties.
In domestic, social and affectional matters, however, things will enjoy a more pleasant aspect, but may take a sensational or unconventional turn.

Those whose birthday it is should endeavor to keep themselves quiet and in routine grooves, as new ventures
and hasty changes might bring disaster.
Speculative enterprises should be shunned, else sudden losses threaten.
A child born on this day may be active and enterprising, and may meet
with losses and disaster unless it keep out of risky and speculative ventures.

CONFERENCE OF V.I.
INSTITUTES TO TAKE PLACE IN OCTOBER

Plans Are Being Formulated
For Annual Meeting in Victoria

Arrangements are being completed for the second annual conference of the Vancouver Island Women's Institutes, to be held in Victoria on October 7, and for the following two days. The sessions will be held in the members' room at the Parliament Buildings, and the district board of directors report that practically all the Island Institutes will be represented.

The question of financing the Institute conference is an interesting one, as up to last year this and other expenses have been borne entirely by the Department of Agriculture, which paid the traveling expenses of one delegate from each of the thirty-three Island Institutes. This year the Institutes themselves have undertaken to meet this expense, and the ready response of an organization already noted for its generous support of all welfare work is particularly gratifying to the board of directors, which has the conference plans well in hand.

The personnel of the board is as follows: Mrs. A. Booth (Esquimalt, W.I.), president; Mrs. H. Crocker (Victoria, W.I.), vice-president; Mrs. S. W. Raven (Victoria, W.I.), secretary; Mrs. E. Douglas (Lake Hill, W.I.), and Mrs. A. Robertson (Whaletown, W.I.), directors.

Conveners of the district child welfare committees, education and better schools, immigration, agriculture, home economics, community betterment, publicity, institute work and methods, industry and legislation, will all submit reports, to be followed by discussion. Several speakers of note have consented to address the delegates, and these include Dr. D. Warnock, superintendent of B.C. Women's Institutes; Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Crocker, of the district board of directors; Mr. W. P. Schwenker, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Miss Lottie Bowron and Dr. Irene Hudson.

Presiding officers of the sessions will include Mrs. Henderson Laurie, of the Provincial executive of B.C. Women's Institutes; Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Crocker, of the district board of directors.

DELEGATES LEAVE FOR VANCOUVER

Visiting and Victoria Delegates Leave For Annual Meeting in Vancouver

Today Victoria bids farewell to the large and influential body of women who have been holding their preliminary sessions in this city, as this afternoon's boat will carry them and a large number of delegates and representatives of Columbia W.A. to Vancouver for the annual meeting of the Dominion Board which commences to-morrow morning.

Among the officers of Columbia Diocesan Board who are going over are: Mrs. Quinlan, Mrs. Dickson, Mrs. Nivn, Mrs. Heatherbell, Miss Turner, Mrs. Chow, Mrs. Eastwood, Miss Duncan, and Mrs. Colin Cummins, who is representing the Christ Church Cathedral Branch. Representing up-Island branches are Mrs. R. B. Porter, wife of the rector of Mayne Island; Mrs. Bolton of Cedar; Mrs. Collison of Quamichan; Mrs. Halhed of Chemainus; Mrs. Fletcher of Duncan; Miss Bolster of Cowichan; Mrs. Taylor, Salt Spring Island; Mrs. H. Wood of Alberni; Mrs. Davis, Parksville; Mrs. Leslie Melville of Soanemo and Mrs. Corker, who will represent Comox. Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Norrish, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. Laycock are the accredited delegates from Columbia W.A.

All work sent in will be subject to a committee of selection; and no picture will be hung which is received after Thursday, October 15.

All exhibits must be framed. All Exhibits must be the original work of the exhibitors; but in case of craft work the design need not be original. Whether the design is original or not must be stated.

For further information apply to Mr. J. S. McMillan, honorary treasurer, 201 Union Bank Building, phone 1470, or Mr. J. R. Simons, honorary secretary, 985 St. Patrick Street, phone 3423.

In order to assist exhibitors from a distance, the society will undertake to unpack and repack goods delivered freight paid to the Art Gallery, Crystal Garden, Belleville Street, and addressed to Honorary Secretary, Island Arts and Crafts Society.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

Although this may be a lively day
with sudden events precipitated of a radical nature, the auguries may not be read as fortunate. In fact, new ventures should be postponed, as there is a menace of losses and difficulties.
In domestic, social and affectional
matters, however, things will enjoy a more pleasant aspect, but may take a sensational or unconventional
turn.

Those whose birthday it is should endeavor to keep themselves quiet and
in routine grooves, as new ventures
and hasty changes might bring disaster.
Speculative enterprises should be shunned, else sudden losses threaten.
A child born on this day may be
with losses and disaster unless it keep out of risky and speculative ventures.

W. A. DELEGATES
AT BELLINGHAM

Visitors Are Entertained by Diocese of Olympia

A warm welcome was given on Saturday, Sept. 12, by the City of Bellingham, Wash., to the officers of the Dominion Board of the Women's Auxiliary, who, with many members of the Woman's Auxiliary went over to pay a short visit to the Sister Diocese of Olympia. Upon the arrival of the steamer at Bellingham a large and representative committee were on the dock with a fleet of motors to accommodate nearly hundred people. After a delightful drive around the city and Chuckanut Mountain, the party was entertained with lavish hospitality at the beautiful home of Mrs. Larabee on Forest Hill, where a programme had been arranged, and excellently carried out under the direction of Canon E. B. Smith, who announced the speakers. Bishop Hustis of Olympia was followed by Judge Keller, the mayor of the city, who expressed the pleasure of the city to welcome the Canadian Church women, representing every province in Canada. Mrs. D. J. Kinzie, diocesan president of Olympia, brought greetings from the women of Olympia, and expressed their best wishes for the forthcoming annual meeting in Vancouver.

The senior warden of St. Paul's Church, Bellingham, then spoke, eulogizing the work of Canon E. B. Smith, who, during his four years' incumbency of St. Paul's, has, with his wife, won their way into the hearts of the people of Bellingham, having come there from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

Canon E. B. Smith spoke of the good work being done by the W.A. of Olympia, and called upon Mrs. Ferrabee, the Dominion president, to speak. In a telling little speech, Mrs. Ferrabee very gracefully expressed the thanks of herself and her officers for the kind and hearty welcome and the visit as being one of the "Inspiration Points" of the journey.

Mrs. Belsom, diocesan president of Columbia Women's Auxiliary, was next called upon, and expressed thanks on behalf of the co-hostesses in Canada, of Columbia and New Westminster for the delightful hospitality that had been extended to their guests.

During the serving of refreshments a very delightful musical programme was given; also an opportunity of visiting the beautiful garden. Receiving with Mrs. Kinzie were the hostesses, Mrs. Larabee, Mrs. E. B. Smith and officers of the Olympia executive, as well as members of the Bellingham and Blaine parochial branches.

To each guest was given, upon leaving for the return drive to the boat, a charming souvenir, in the form of an illustrated poem, entitled "Where Dreams Come True," by Mark Hammon, illustrated by the beauty of Puget Sound and Chuckanut Drive.

Among the representative citizens who received the guests upon arrival were the Mayor of Bellingham, Dr. Stimpson, Mrs. Gates and his son, as well as Canon E. B. Smith and others of the clergy.

TELLS OF IMPROVED
FINANCE SITUATIONCardin, Minister of Marine,
Points to Canada's Progress
Under Liberal Rule

Montreal, Sept. 14.—Hon. P. J. A. Cardin, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, addressed a large meeting at the Hotel de Ville, in Montreal, Quebec, the constituency of Hon. George Bolvin, the recently appointed Minister of Customs, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Cardin reviewed conditions in Canada and made a plea for unity, particularly among French-Canadians.

Talking of Canada's economic circumstances, Mr. Cardin said that when the King Government took office the whole social and financial life of the country was in a turmoil, commerce was in a dangerous condition and there was reason to fear for the future of the country. Only a few years had passed yet the financial situation was infinitely better, to such an extent that after meeting obligations and interest payments, there had still remained a substantial balance, which had been used to reduce the debt of the country.

"They are bad patriots," said Mr. Cardin, "who say Canada can not provide her children with a living, and that the United States is more prosperous than our own country. That is not true. Canada is as prosperous as any other country which has gone through the sufferings and miseries of war."

If a company of the Ohio National Guard had not been called out to guard the wreckage of the Shenandoah, the navy department would have had little debris to remove. A few hours after the crash people came by the thousands to view the wreckage. Souvenir hunters at once started to pick up everything that could be removed, including parts of radio sets, pieces of the silver canvas, furniture and utensils aboard the ship and even big girders. Here are three men taking away all they can carry.

NEW HOME FOR U.S.
UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH

Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 14.—When the Louisiana State University opens on September 25 on its new site, it will have deserted a campus over which the flags of seven nations have flown. The old site which was tenanted by the state when the United States Army garrison was abandoned, had since the seventeenth century been used as an army post by those seven nations.

The first banner to float in the breeze was the Bourbon flag, "the oriflamme of Navarre," the white banner embroidered with three golden fleur-de-lis. The fleur-de-lis became the emblem when the fort was in 1673 and in its stead, the Union Jack of the British was raised. General Galvez with a force of Spaniards, Americans and negroes marched against the post from New Orleans sixteen years later, capturing it, and raised over it the flag of Spain with its lions and castle in a centre of red and yellow stripes.

In 1810, the flag of the Republic of West Florida replaced the Spanish emblem, when the fort was stormed by General Philomen Thomas and for a few months the "lone star flag," a blue flag with a single silver star in the centre, floated over historic campus. The "Stars and Stripes" displaced the "lone star flag" when President Madison ordered Governor Claiborne to take control of the territory which was considered a part of the Louisiana Purchase.

LOUISIANA REPUBLIC
For fifty-one years the "Star Spangled Banner" fluttered in the breezes, to be hauled down and replaced by the unique flag of the Republic of Louisiana, which the state became upon secession of the state from the Union.

The flag that floated over the garrison during that period consisted of thirteen stripes, four blue, six white and three red and in the upper left hand corner a field of red containing a single star of pale yellow. It was a single star of pale yellow. It was designed by a committee named for such a purpose and combined the colors of all flags that had up to that time floated over the post.

The Stars and Bars of the Confederacy replaced the Louisiana flag when the state joined the forces of the Confederacy. When Farragut started up the Mississippi to clear the route of southern forces, Baton Rouge was captured by the Federals and the Stars and Stripes again floated from the flag pole.

Vancouver, Sept. 14.—The finding of the clothes of F. Stanley Jones, aged forty, a naval veteran of the Great War, is believed to indicate he was drowned while swimming off the Kitsilano shore. He left his rooming house on Saturday evening to go for a swim.

TROOPS REPORTED ON
FRONTIER OF IRAKRumor in Geneva Last Night
Told of Turkish Threat Against British

Geneva, Sept. 14.—An unverified report circulated in Geneva last night to the effect that the Turks had massed 70,000 troops on the Iraq frontier as a means of forcing a favorable decision of the Mosul dispute with Great Britain.

The Turks were declared to be ready to throw the Mosul oil resources open to all countries on an equal basis if the Council of the League of Nations would grant them the sovereignty they desired.

Other reports said the Turks were inclined to accept the League of Nations' investigation committee's alternative proposal for a division of the disputed territory between themselves and Iraq, and have the settlement guaranteed by a pact between Great Britain, Turkey, Iraq and Persia.

WEST COAST WILL DEVELOP FAST IN NEXT FIVE YEARS

C. P. W. Schwengers Tells Gyros of Great Future Which Faces That Section

"I feel confident that the development on the West Coast of Vancouver in the next five years will be greater than it has been in the past fifty years," P. W. Schwengers, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in the course of an address before the Gyro Club to-day, said that Quatsino had the earmarks of a trip to the West Coast and he pictured to the Gyros the immense possibilities of that section of the island.

"The West Coast means as much to Victoria as the Fraser Valley does to Vancouver," he went on.

Referring to the tourist possibilities of the West Coast, Mr. Schwengers stated that "Alaska was not one, two, three in regard to scenery and interest." The next year would see the development of tourist travel to Port Alice, but the speaker intimated that the tourist and commercial aspect would far outshine it.

FISHING POSSIBILITIES

Mr. Schwengers told of the value of the halibut, pichard and herring industry, adding that one million tons of herring fertilizer each year could be made up without materially interfering with the run.

Regarding mining Mr. Schwengers said that Quatsino had the earmarks of becoming one of the greatest camps on the continent and would soon be attracting as much interest as Stewart.

The timber on the West Coast was of sufficient value to wipe off the slate of the province remarked Mr. Schwengers. As soon as the West Coast of the island is logged off the mills will have to turn their attention to the West Coast.

It was announced that the luncheon that the first rehearsal of "The Beauty Shop" would be held to-night at 8 o'clock in the Empress Hotel.

POUND PARTY FOR ORPHANAGE WILL BE HELD FRIDAY

Institution Depends on Voluntary Support to Carry on Notable Work

The annual pound party of the B. C. Protestant Orphanage will be held Friday at the home on Hillside Avenue, under the auspices of the Ladies' auxiliary.

The orphanage was founded over fifty years ago, and as it has no grant from the Provincial Government as the city is dependent on the voluntary contributions in cash and kind from the public, who have given generously in the past and are again called upon for their assistance.

At present under the capable management of the matron, Mrs. Harris, there are forty-three children being cared for, of which thirty-three are in attendance at school. The home is managed by a committee, the members appointed by various Protestant churches in Victoria.

On Friday visitors will have the opportunity of seeing through the home that shelters the fatherless and motherless children of Victoria, and are requested to donate generously to this worthy institution.

The president of the committee, Mrs. Hilcox, assisted by the members will receive the guests.

Mrs. W. H. Walker will have charge of the tea and Mrs. E. M. Brown and Mrs. F. O. Sherwood will take care of the donations.

WHALING COMPANY WILL OPERATE ALL THREE STATIONS

Subnormal Season This Year Caused by Fog and Heavy Weather

Despite a disappointing season in which heavy weather and fog held their feet from normal operation the Consolidated Whaling Corporation will operate all three stations next year as usual, including the Kyququot, Rose and Naden Harbor stations, stated Capt. Le Marquand to The Times to-day.

Capt. Le Marquand returned this week from a business trip to Seattle, where he placed figures for the season's operation to date before the company heads. The directors will meet this year at the end of October, when the future policies of the company will be outlined.

There is, states Capt. Le Marquand, no foundation for the report that the Consolidated Whaling Corporation has hampered in its operations to an unprecedented extent.

The lack of scarcity of whales, however, though at Kyququot they lay further off than is usual. The Kyququot station, with three boats, took thirty-nine mammals; Rose Harbor, with three boats, took the record number with 139, and Naden Harbor, two boats, took fifty-nine whales.

SHOWER FLOWERS ON ORCHESTRA LEADER

Charles Hunt Honored at Popular Crystal Garden Dance

Returning from a triumphant summer as leader of his dance orchestra on the Canadian Pacific boats, Charles Hunt was the recipient of a shower of flowers and a touching token of appreciation from his many admirers Saturday night at the Crystal Garden dance. Mr. Hunt opened for a series of dances every night throughout the winter with a wonderful programme of revue numbers and latest hits, using the same musicians he used on his C.P.R. tours. At the close of the evening, after being showered with flowers, he was presented with a huge bouquet. The popular Victoria musician was visibly affected as he responded to the call for a speech. With the excellent floor and charming surroundings helping the bright atmosphere of the dances, it anticipated that the Crystal Garden dance will prove a popular rendezvous every night of the week.

Plans for grazing large numbers of sheep on the reclaimed area at Sumas are under consideration by the Provincial Department of Agriculture. Much valuable feed growing at Sumas could be utilized in this way, according to agricultural officials. Twelve Sumas farmers are appealing to the courts against the assessments placed on their land by the Government court of revision some time ago.

A Public Lecture

ON A SUBJECT OF WORLD INTEREST

"The Year of Jubilee"

MILLIONS NOW LIVING WILL NEVER DIE

THE year 1925 has figured to a large extent in the public press for many months past. The Roman Catholic Church planned many things for this year, which they celebrate as the Year of Jubilee, including the re-establishment of the Ecumenical Council. Bible Students have pointed to it as a marked date in contemporary history, spoken of by prophets of old, and as heralding a new order to be established.

There has, however, been much misconception as to just what this will indicate, and the teachings of the I.B.S.A. have many times been distorted and their statements misconstrued as to what they expect at this time.

Will it mean the dawn of the Era of Peace? Or will it mean a still greater storm of passion and protest against existing evils? Will it see the Kingdom of Christ completely established, or will great signs and wonders be seen heralding His Second Advent?

McQuade Beats Hart By One Up In Finals

City Championship Decided at Thirty-sixth Hole Yesterday at Colwood, When McQuade Took a Chance in Getting Out of Woods and Hart Played Safe; All Excitement of Match Crowded Into Final Hole; Hart Forced to Use Left-handed Club

Ed. McQuade to-day is sporting the city golf crown upon his fair locks as a result of his victory over Jack Hart yesterday in the finals. The match was played at the Colwood Golf Club and every one of the thirty-six holes had to be played before Dame Fortune condescended to smile upon McQuade, who won 1 up.

When McQuade sank his putt for a bogey "five" on the thirty-fifth he squared the match. This left the decision to the home hole and the most interesting golf of the two rounds was crowded into the remaining strokes.

Both players found the woods with their tee shots. Hart was a bit unlucky when his ball reached the top of the mound and took a nasty kick, rolling down the hill under the stately fir. McQuade took his tee shot and fetched up two yards from Hart. Hart could not play his ball with a right-handed club and borrowed a maul from the port side. Hart was well out. McQuade did not have such a bad lie as Hart but the branches hung low in front of him. He decided to take a chance rather than play out safely and crashed his ball straight for the pin. Luck favored him and the ball struck a limb. McQuade reached the green with his third, but Hart was short. Hart was short again with his approach putt and he came back to get down, while McQuade found the cup for a five and won the match.

McQuade was down most of the way. At the end of the morning round he was two down and five times during the afternoon he was three down. In the final hole he came back strongly and ultimately won the match.

In the morning both had "fives" on the first hole and Hart won the second with another "five." McQuade's "four" was good enough to win the third for him and square the match and he became one up on Hart when he notched a birdie "two." The long fifth brought McQuade a "six," which made him two up, but Hart won the sixth with a "five" to McQuade's "six."

Both had par on the seventh and halved the hole, while Hart's par "four" on the eighth made him one up. McQuade shot par on the ninth and won the hole.

Hart turned in a "four" on the next four holes, winning three of them. McQuade had a "three" on the eleventh, which was one better than Hart. The fourteenth was halved in "five," but a par "three" on the fifteenth made Hart three up. McQuade won back a hole at the seventeenth and the eighteenth was halved in par "four."

Hart made the second nine in 37, the best of the day. He had 81 on the eighteen, while McQuade required one more stroke.

Hart started off the afternoon round in great style and hit the pin at the nineteenth on his second shot and was down in "three" for a birdie. For the rest of the third nine they sawsawed, first one winning and then the other, with the result that Hart still remained two up at the turn.

McQuade was very consistent on the way home and played slowly and cautiously. He started the twenty-eighth with a par "four," but Hart took two holes by remarkable golf at the twenty-ninth and thirtieth. He had a "two" on the thirty-first, and on the second, just one more in each case than McQuade. Once again Hart led, winning the next two holes and halving the thirty-third and thirty-fourth. A bogey "five" on the thirty-fifth ended the match. McQuade won the match and he won the home hole in "five."

The scores in the morning round were as follows:

McQuade	5 6 4 2 6 6 5 4 4 1
Hart	5 5 5 6 4 4 5 4 4 1

Out 5 5 6 4 7 5 3 4 5 4 1

St. Louis Treat League Leaders Badly in Double-Header; Giants Idle

Washington and Philadelphia Play 11-Inning Tie; Vance Pitches No-hit Game

New York, Sept. 14.—Stubborn resistance by the leaders in the pennant races marks the start of the last three weeks of the major league season. Washington and the Philadelphia Athletics wrestled through an eleven-inning game at Washington yesterday with the score 6-6 when darkness intervened. Goslin was suspended and fined $100 by Manager Harris for error.

Pitching weakness was the downfall of the Pirates in both sections of a double-header, with the opener of a double-header with the Phillies. Spoon a Reliable Club

EVERY ONE SHOULD CARRY A SPOON—THIS CLUB HAS BECOME POPULAR AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR THE CLEEK

A very long time ago the spoon, or what it was called then, the "Buffy Spoon," was an important club. It took the place of the cleek which a modern club built on modern lines has become a substitute for the cleek which frequently where one might at first be inclined to use a midiron.

The advantage of a spoon is in the manner in which it picks the ball up from the ground, providing one does not try to scoop the ball up. The loft of the club takes care of raising the ball. The spoon is valuable when approaching from 150 to 180 yards as the ball carries a certain amount of back spin and lessens the danger of over-running the green. Some golfers carry two spoons, the only difference between them being that one has a little longer shaft than the other. The long faced spoon gives the beginner more confidence.

Sunderland Proves Wonder Team In O.C.

Have Scored Twenty Goals in Four Games and Remain Undefeated in First Division; West Ham Leads by Virtue of Goal Average, But Huddersfield and Tottenham as Well as Sunderland Have Yet to Lose; Leicester City Unlucky

London, Sept. 14 (Canadian Press Cable).—Despite a couple of drawn games, the metropolitan teams came out of Saturday's contests in the first division of the English soccer league in excellent fashion and Londoners continue to enjoy the spectacle of West Ham topping the league with Tottenham Hotspurs following in close pursuit, second only by virtue of goals average.

Still undefeated and still carrying out a triumphant course come Sunderland who beat the cupholders on Saturday, 6 to 1, thus running up a count of twenty goals scored in four games. These three clubs, together with Huddersfield Town, are the only undefeated teams in the first division.

Sixty-five thousand fans thronged to witness the game between Manchester City and Manchester United played on the ground of the former. As was expected, the game was not productive of particularly good football, and the one-goal draw in which it resulted represented pretty well the state of the game.

At Villa Park, 45,000 enthusiasts watched Aston Villa and Newcastle take two goals each, being the result of a particularly good football.

Foley Anxious To Redeem Prestige In Mascott Bout

Vio Has Never Been Able to Beat Portland Boy; Title Is at Stake

Foley Will Arrive Here Wednesday and Workout For Local Fans

Vancouver, Sept. 14.—Vic Foley, the Canadian bantamweight champion, who defends his title against Billy Mascott in Victoria on Friday, September 18, in a ten-round battle, has been putting in some hard work for the past week in preparation for the bout.

Mascott is one of the two men that have beaten Foley, without being beaten in a return bout. Lynch was the other. Mascott beat Foley here in a sensational ten-round battle in which he had Foley on the floor for a long count and looked to be a certain winner by the knockout route.

Foley, however, wrenched the storm and finished the bout fairly strong. In a return bout Foley held Mascott even.

In addition to defending his Canadian championship, Foley has the added incentive of evening up the score with Mascott in their coming battle.

FOLEY IN FINE SHAPE

Foley has been working out daily in his Capilano Canyon training camp with Harvey Holliday, Jackie Newman and Bud Davies, and is over-looking no bet in order to be in the best possible shape for the contest.

Foley accompanied by Manager Jack Allen and Harvey Holliday are to arrive in Victoria on Wednesday afternoon to work out for the Victoria fans. Holliday, who is to appear in one of the supporting acts on the Foley-Mascott card, is one of the best-looking prospects that ever appeared in a local ring and is being picked by the critics to be up among the top-notchers within a short time.

Fowler's Goal Gave Cumberland Victory

Scored Deciding Counter Three Minutes Before Time Giving Up-Islanders 4-3 Decision Over Veterans

in Pacific Coast League Soccer Match Saturday; Brand of Soccer Was Good for Opening Game of Season; Teams Were Tied 2-2 at Half-time

Fowler's splendid goal about three minutes from time was enough to give Cumberland a well-deserved 4-3 victory over the Veterans in the opening game in Victoria of the newly-formed Pacific Coast Football League at the Royal Athletic Park on Saturday afternoon. A fairly large crowd attended, and, taking into consideration it was the first game of the season, the brand of soccer dished up was good.

Cumberland had a big advantage over the local eleven in combination play and the feature was noticeable all during the game. The visitors forwards worked well together, and it was only through the fine work of the Vets' back division that they failed to score more often. The Veterans, however, have a good team, and with plenty of practice they should be able to give any of the teams in the league a good battle. The shooting of both teams was very poor.

The Veterans were considerably weakened through the absence of Harry Copas, who failed to turn out, and Chris Owens who is on the sick list. If these men had been on the team the score might have been different.

VETS SECURE LEAD

Alderman Cullin in the absence of Mayor Penderay performed the ceremony of kicking off. Cumberland took the offensive and tested Bridges with a couple of fast drives. The Vets swept the ball down the field, and they opened the scoring when Cameron hooked the ball into the corner of the net with a ground shot after Blake, the Cumberland goalie had failed to clear. Phillips's cross from right wing, Cameron and Conti, Cumberland's centre half, collided when the local forward was making the play, and both were laid out for a few minutes. The visiting players having a party cash opened up on his forehead.

Cumberland pressed on the Vets' goal. Bridges being called on to block several shots. "Toots" Plump had a fine opening, but his shot went wide of its mark. Cumberland had quite a number of off-sides called when they had chances of scoring.

CUMBERLAND EVENS UP

The visitors tied up the score when McDonald found the net after a general melee in the Vets' goal, and Bridges had come out on a low ball in an attempt to clear. With the score tied, the teams fought hard in an attempt to secure the lead. Coulter missed the goal by inches, and a few minutes later he made another fine try when he headed the ball over the bar. Phillips came within an ace of scoring, but his shot was just scraped across the bar. Cumberland, nearly went into the lead when Preston missed in front of the goal, but Coulter saved, clearing nicely.

Bridges scored, clearing nicely. Coulter had a bit of tough luck when he headed the ball over the top of the net. Bridges made a lovely save of Monaghan's shot, shot just outside of the penalty area.

PHILLIPS SCORES

Carrying the ball down the right wing Phillips sent in a high shot which he headed in front of the Cumberland goal, and when Blake, nearly went into the lead when Preston missed in front of the goal, but Coulter saved, clearing nicely.

Play in the second half was inclined to be a bit slow, as the fast pace set in the first period was being tempered to tell on both teams. The Cumberland forwards were working hard for a goal, and Bridges again saved the day when he blocked Hickey's stinging shot from the right wing. The Vets forced number of corners, but failed to take advantage of them. Coulter hit the post with a fast shot, but Phillips had driven in a perfect corner.

One of the most sparkling plays of the match was seen when Phillips carried from near the flag on the right wing, Coulter took the ball off the ground and shot quickly. It looked like a sure goal, but Walker made a spectacular save, being knocked out in making the play.

Bridges again came into the lime-light when he saved Monaghan's free shot, picking the ball out of the top corner of the net. Conti put the Up-Islanders in the lead when he drove McDonald's centre into the goal, the ball hitting the goal post and glancing into the net. Bridges earned the applause of the crowd when he blocked Fowler's drive with his foot.

SCORE ON A PENALTY

During an attack on the Cumberland goal, the local goalie looked like scoring Marshall, one of the Cumberland full-backs, handled the ball, and the Vets were awarded a penalty kick. Coulter made no mistake, beating the Cumberland net custodian with a low drive.

This seemed to put new life in both teams, and end-to-end rushes were carried out by both teams. Preston sent in a fast shot that just missed the goal. Fowler scored an offside goal.

When the fans were ready to call it a draw Fowler gave Cumberland a hard-fought victory when he beat Bridges after Blake had sent in a fine shot from when he kicked. The final whistle blew just after the kick-off.

For the locals White and Campbell performed well on the back division, while Coulter, Cameron and Phillips were the pick of the forwards.

Plump, Fowler, Conti and Blake played well for Cumberland.

Stokes handled the whistle, and the teams were as follows:

Cumberland: Walker, Marshall, Mortimer, Monaghan, Conti, Blake, Bannerman, Plump, Fowler, McDonald and Hitchens.

Veterans: Bridges, Campbell, Whyte, Oat, Preston, Thornett, Phillips, Cameron, Coulter, Clark and Merfield.

This remarkable view of the wreckage of the giant dirigible Shenandoah, near Ava, O., was taken from an aeroplane. It shows slightly more than half of the big blimp. The other part was broken off by the storm and drifted ten miles from this spot.

This twisted mass of wreckage is all that remains of the Shenandoah, pride of the United States navy's lighter-than-air forces. Among the huge girders which the Ohio storm snapped as if they were thin sticks of wood can be seen the tanks of helium, the valuable non-inflammable gas used. Had hydrogen been in these tanks an explosion and fire would have been almost certain, possibly causing a much greater loss of life.

BITTER MAYORALTY NEW YORK CONTEST

Hylan-Walker Factional Fight Within Democratic Party is Warm One

New York, Sept. 14 (Canadian Press).—A bitter fight has been waged within the ranks of the Democratic party over the New York mayoralty "primary" or preliminary election, which will be held to-morrow. Then the adherents of each of the big parties will cast their ballots for one or other of various aspirants for the nomination within the party. But back of the battle between Mayor John F. Hylan and State Senator James J. Walker, who are contesting for the Democratic nomination, is a still more bitter fight between two political enemies of long standing, and in this fight the mayoralty is merely a pawn in the game. Domination of the Democratic machine of the state and its consequent future advantage is the prize of this hidden warfare.

The principals in this battle are Governor Alfred E. Smith and William Randolph Hearst, the publisher. Hearst has long had political ambitions—in fact it is asserted he at one time aspired to the presidency. Though it is generally agreed his candidature for that post would be without the bounds of possibility—and it was Alfred E. Smith who put a damper upon his political schemes upon several occasions in the past. And now the two rivals for party control and all the future possibilities it implies have locked horns in a desperate struggle in the present campaign.

SMITH AGAINST HEARST

Nominally the Democratic contest is Hylan versus Walker. Actually it is Smith versus Hearst. Hylan is an out-and-out Hearst man. He has been dubbed Hearst's "Man Friday" and his sole newspaper support in this campaign has come from the Hearst press. Walker is a personal friend of Smith and it is the Governor who is credited with the fact that Walker was the choice of the regular party for Smith, though not nominally at the head of Tammany Hall, is generally known to be its controlling influence.

Hearst has carried on a series of bitter attacks upon the Governor and Smith has not been slow to retaliate. Their passages at arms have served to enliven the campaign. Hylan and Hearst declared the Governor had no business meddling with a municipal election. In turn, Smith came out with a statement in which he charged that Hearst did not belong to the Democratic Party and had no business interfering in its affairs.

LETTER TO PAPER

The statement took the form of a letter to The New York American, Mr. Hearst's paper. Specifically, it replied to a statement previously printed by the publisher. Mr. Hearst had written that Governor Smith, whom he termed "the actual boss of Tammany Hall," was attacking Mayor Hylan "as a Ku Kluxer." The publisher declared also that Smith and W. G. McAdoo met at the Ritz and named John W. Davis as a compromise candidate at the last Democratic National Convention. Until then, the publisher wrote, Hylan supported Smith for the nomination and refused to be a candidate for the vice-presidency.

The publisher declared the Democrats of the nation would like to ask Governor Smith these things:

"Why try to injure political opponents by base methods? Why wrap the robes of religion about you while serving Mammon and worshipping the golden calf? Above all, why lie?"

ALL FALSE

The Governor's statement said: "Mr. Hearst's entire statement is a lie."

In characterizing various parts of the publisher's statement as "lies" the Governor used the adjectives "wicked," "premeditated," "deliberate" and "unfounded."

The Governor said he had charged Mayor Hylan had conferred in secret with "the representatives of the Klan" during the national convention and that the Mayor had admitted it. He denied he had met Mr. McAdoo and decided on Mr. Davis as a compromise candidate.

Then he went on to say Mr. Hearst had the "nerve of a Bengal tiger to be loading in the splendor of his palatial estate on the Coast and attempting to dictate the politics of New York."

"Mr. Hearst has no interest in the Democratic Party," the letter said.

Mrs. Margaret Lansdowne (right), says that her husband, Com. Zachary Lansdowne, protested against taking the Shenandoah on a western trip until next month because of the probability of frequent storms. She charges Secretary of the Navy Wilbur overruled Lansdowne's recommendations that the flight be delayed until October 15 because the Secretary wanted "to play politics by sending the ship over the Middle West." At the left is Mrs. Betsy Ross Lansdowne of Greenville, O., mother of the dead commander, who is shown in the centre.

"He never supports its candidates except when to do so serves his own selfish purposes. He does not belong to the Democratic Party."

"What a travesty! What a joke to hear Mr. Hearst asking the question, 'Why try to injure political opponents by base methods?' He is the past master of that art. He introduced it into the politics of this country. The greatest burden Mayor Hylan has to carry to-day is William Randolph Hearst."

DAYLIGHT SAVING IS TO END OCTOBER 4 IN OLD COUNTRY

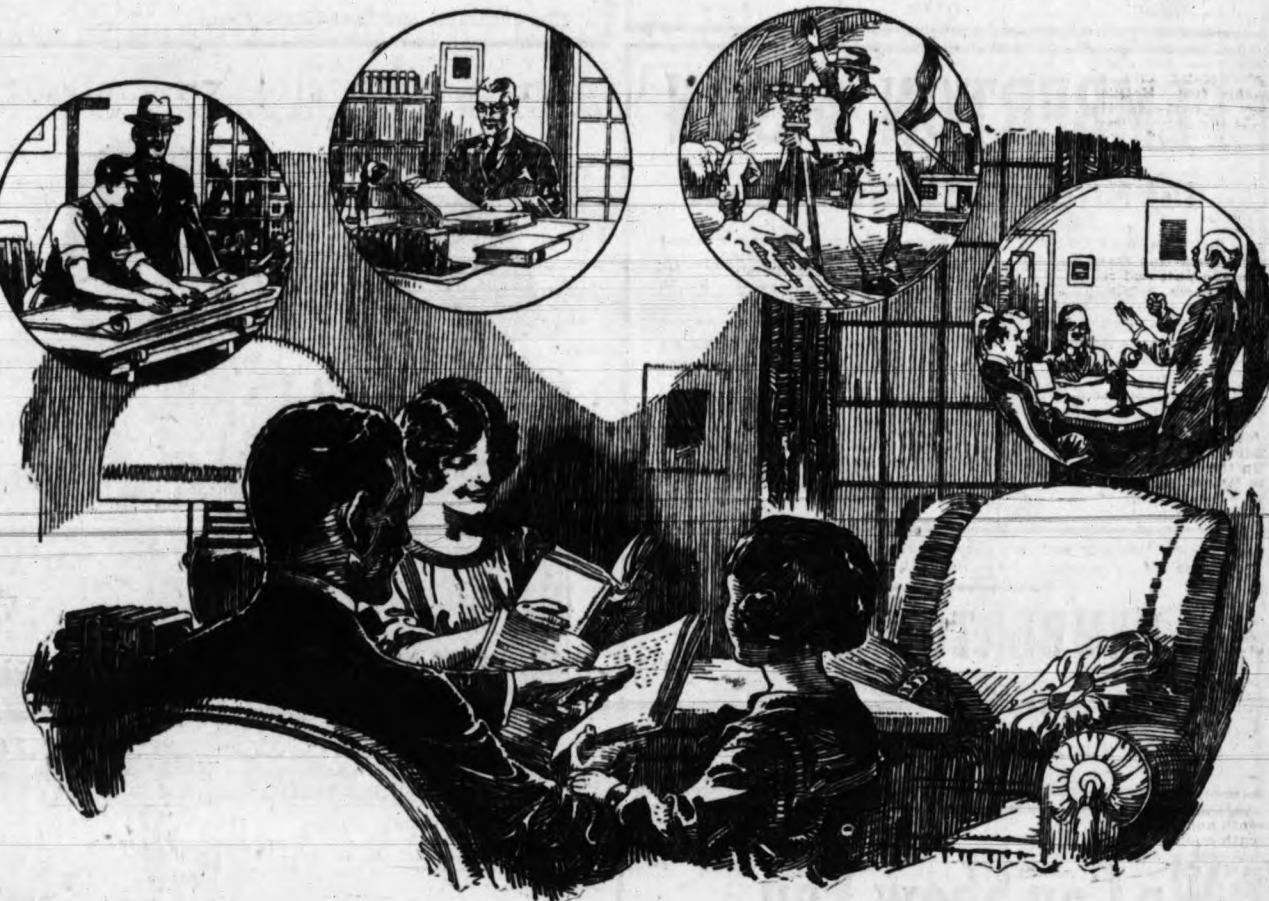

London, Sept. 14.—Summer time in this country will end this year in the morning of Sunday, October 4, says a notice from the Home Secretary's Department.

Summer time in the future will be at 2 o'clock Greenwich mean time on the morning of the day after the third Saturday in April, or, if that day is Easter Day, the day after the second Saturday in April. It will end at 2 o'clock Greenwich mean time on the morning of the day after the first Saturday in October.

This is in accordance with the Summer Time Act, which was recently passed, to establish Summer time permanently.

To give to the human mind a direction which it shall retain for ages is the rare prerogative of a few imperial spirits.

Similarity is the mother of friendship.

What About the Child's Education?

YOU HAVE HOPED--you have planned-- that your child may be fitted to take his rightful, honorable place in the world which will know him as a man. Some niche awaits him in the future--which he must be educated to fill.

Yet you may not always be here to earn his right to that education. You have planned so far. You have still a little way to go. There is one way you may provide for the future of those you love, even after you have gone.

It is a safe, sane, certain way, the way of Life Insurance Service. Let a representative of Life Insurance Service explain the matter more fully to you.

"I'LL SHOW YOU THE TOWN," STARRING REGINALD DENNY, ATTRACTION AT CAPITOL

"I'll Show You the Town," the Universal-Jewel feature starring Reginald Denny, which is being shown at the Capitol Theatre, is a story without a single heroine. It has four of them!

Four leading women, of diverse and distinct types, support Denny in his latest comedy feature. They are Marian Nixon, Margaret Livingston, Clary Fitzgerald and Lilyan Tashman. Miss Nixon plays the role of a sweet, unsophisticated girl from the far west; Miss Livingston as Denny's boyhood sweetheart from the country; Miss Fitzgerald as a wealthy widow and Miss Tashman as the dance loving wife of Denny's friend.

Trying to show the sights of the town to three of the heroines at the same time, each of the women being unaware of the other's existence is the problem which confronts Denny in the role of Professor Dupree, a scholar who is attempting to write a dissertation on "Apartment House Life in Ancient Rome." How this unusual feat is accomplished is revealed in a series of highly comic situations.

"I'll Show You the Town" is the screen version of Elmer Davis's entertaining novel of the same name. It was produced under the direction of Harry A. Pollard. Denny is surrounded by an unusual string of cast including Hayden Stevenson, Edward Kimball, Neely Edwards, William A. Carroll, Martha Mattox, Helen Greene and Lionel Braham.

Popular Singer on Dominion Programme

Miss Ada Wise, a young Victoria singer of merit and ability, will be the singer at the Dominion this week. Miss Wise was one of the most successful singers at the B.C. Musical Festival held recently at Vancouver, winning the gold medal for mezzo-soprano and also the cup for the highest marks obtained.

She is gifted with a delightful voice and sings with an ease and artistry that has much charm. Her programme during the week's engagement will include the two popular ballads, "Out Of The Dusk To You" and "An Irish Love Song."

Orchestra Plays at Capitol To-night

The Capitol orchestra, under the direction of A. Prescott, will give a music lovers' night to-night. The programme is arranged in a light nature as the screaming comedy, "I'll Show You the Town," featuring Reginald Denny, calls for this class of music. Some of the latest fox trots and waltzes will be rendered during the evening. Some of the numbers to be featured are as follows:—"If You Knew Susie," fox trot, De Sylva; "Let Me Linger Longer In Your Arms," fox trot, Friend; "O Katharina," fox trot, Fall; "Sometime," waltz, Forster; "I Want to be Happy," fox trot, Youmans.

"Little Irish Girl" Stage Attraction at Playhouse Theatre

First National Film "Necessary Evil" on the Screen

"The Little Irish Girl" is going to be one of the plays you will remember. The story was written and directed by Mr. Reginald Hincks who through his experience with nearly every show ever written, is becoming very familiar with the wants of the Victoria public. It is true he has gathered around him one of the best casts ever seen in Victoria, but even ants. "It is only in our way." So Mr. Big Bill picked up the penny and gave it to Weezie who thanked him kindly. Then Uncle Wiggily gave Weezie a penny and the two little bunnies went to the store and I guess they must be there yet, trying to make up their minds what to buy, for they had not come home when I finished this story. But never mind. They will come home sometime, like Mary's little lamb. And if the wax doll doesn't shut her eyes so tightly that she can't open them to see the coconut jump through the hole in the doughnut, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the empty nest.

Famous Sabatini Novel "Sea Hawk" At Columbia Theatre

Stirring Story of Barbary Corsairs is Big Attraction

Frank Lloyd's First National picture, "The Sea Hawk," adapted from Rafael Sabatini's stirring novel of Barbary corsairs, opened at the Columbia Theatre to-day. "The Sea Hawk" is the crowning achievement of a season of brilliant screen dramas, a play that registers its magnitude in every scene and with such force that it is not likely that local screen followers will cease to talk about it very soon.

GIGANTIC UNDERTAKING

To visualize Sabatini's vivid drama has been a gigantic undertaking, yet Mr. Lloyd has delivered a photoplay which allows little room for criticism and which establishes its producer firmly in the front rank of screen masters. "The Sea Hawk" is a masterpiece of cinema art dramatically, pictorially and technically. Seldom have there been so many massive settings in one picture before, especially so many big sea scenes with ships of such dimensions employed. To the picture fan who judges big pictures merely by big settings and number of people employed in them, "The Sea Hawk" should be unusually attractive; to the student of the screen and the critic the massive sets, the gorgeous wardrobe and the more than a thousand people employed in it are merely incidental in comparison to the action of the story, for the "Sea Hawk" is the fastest moving big picture ever reflected on the silver sheet.

Verdict of Suicide Returned by Jury

Nelson, B.C., Sept. 13.—A verdict of suicide was returned by a coroner's jury at Nakusp Saturday, on the body of Miss Dorothy King Kirk, who was found dead on the floor of her brother's room in her Glenbank home, Friday afternoon, shot through the heart with the young man's rifle lying beside her, her mother downstairs hearing the shot. The young woman, testimony showed, had been depressed.

MAGNIFICENT WILD HORSE HERO OF NATURE DRAMA AT DOMINION THIS WEEK

"Black Cyclone," the Hal Roach Pathé feature starring Rex, the king of wild horses, at the Dominion Theatre, is said to be a more elaborate story and production than the first picture with this marvelous black stallion. "The King of Wild Horses." Like that story, "Black Cyclone" was written by Hal Roach and directed by Fred Jackman.

Rex had the wild blood of kingly ancestors in his veins. He was filled with the joy of living and the freedom of the wild. He knew that he was powerful, magnificent, born to rule. But he was young and untamed—he must prove his mettle before he could rule over the wild lands. In his first fight he was terribly worsted—but he had his adversary the wickedest horse in the whole wasteland. The cowboy who had many times tried to capture this bad horse called him the Killer—it was his way to stampede a herd not his own, to attack the rightful leader and to slay him. Then he drove from the herd the undesirable. So he fought

Rex and stole from him his mate, Lady. From that moment Rex's desire was to rescue Lady and to beat his enemy. But he gets caught in quicksand and death stares him in the face—he gives up—he is lost. And then comes a man, a man who braves the dangers to rescue this wild creature who hates men and would slay them—but he is helpless and must suffer the man's touch—the man's caress. And Rex learns of the wonder and kindness of man and thinks him omnipotent. Surely this man can also rescue Lady—but how can a horse convey to a man such thoughts? Rex tries with all his horse sense to tell the man about Lady but in vain. Then, through the night, came to Rex that silent call that all of God's wild creatures hear. Rex knew Lady was in danger. He found her at the mercy of wolves. She had seen her chance to escape the Killer's hand, only to meet this new danger. But Rex's powerful hoofs sent the wolves flying—he gave them no chance to nip at his flanks or throat! He was the destroyer—not the wolver!

Prodded Rex takes Lady to the man and finds him about to be attacked by a cougar, which he slays. With every victory Rex tells himself more the conqueror—the ruler—so that, when the hour comes for him to again meet the Killer—the hour when it will be decided who is to be ruler of the hills—into Rex's heart came the thrill of supremacy. That confidence marked the Killer's doom—at last he was beaten! Another of the great thrills in "Black Cyclone" is when Rex allows the man to mount his back and ride across the sagebrush plain to the rescue of his sweetheart, who has fallen into the hands of a bad man. Guinn Williams is the rider of Rex, and he displays horsemanship as remarkable as the stride and speed of Rex—just a streak of black moving on four legs with the speed of a cyclone!

"Fan" Letters Show
Great Popularity of Coliseum Players

"Arrival of Kitty" on Stage and
"Folly of Vanity" on Screen This Week

"One of the pleasures of appearing in a stock company," says Will Marshall, one of the fun makers at the Coliseum, "is the friends you make. You would be surprised to see the 'fan letters' which find their way into the theatre box. It gives a personal touch that compensates for the hard work of appearing in one play all the week while rehearsing and memorizing for another, and it is gratifying to know from these letters the shows presented are meeting with such approval."

The arrival of Kitty is the attraction on the Coliseum boards this week. As usual, the play is brightened by some excellent singing numbers. It also gives fine scope for George Olsen's artistic setting, as the brilliant little comedy is placed in a charming summer resort in the Catskill Mountains. Eileen Allwood has the title role of Kitty. Will Marshall is the bogus Kitty besieged by scores of Summer admirers before the real Kitty appears on the scene and compels the situation. George Olsen, Leggie Willis and Bob Webb complete the male cast, George Byron being away on a two weeks' vacation. Eva Hart, who will give some more delightful solos, and Ruth Hamilton complete the cast.

Fifty splendid swimmers—male and female; eight of them holding championships in United States, Cuba, Panama, Australia and on the Pacific Coast, render thrilling aquatic feats in "Folly of Vanity," which is the Fox Film Corporation's screen offering.

RAMSAY MACDONALD

TRIP; MAY VISIT U.S.

London, Sept. 14.—On account of the general election impending in Canada, scheduled for October 25, Ramsay MacDonald, former Labor Premier, who was scheduled to make a series of addresses in that country, has cancelled his trip. However, Mr. MacDonald still may visit the United States this fall, going by steamer to Quebec, but proceeding directly to the United States from there.

WOMAN'S DEATH IS SAID TO HAVE BEEN
RESULT OF QUARREL

Montreal, Sept. 14.—Mrs. A. Grand-champs, forty-two, a roomer in the house of Mrs. A. Johnston at Joliette, Que., died Sunday from injuries which police believe she received during a quarrel.

Mrs. Johnston, Pierre Forest and Joseph Roy are held as witnesses for the inquest.

Noted Doctor
On World Tour,
Enjoys Victoria

Dr. Otto Joachim, noted medical authority of New Orleans, arrived in Victoria two days ago on the final leg of his trip around the world. Victoria has appealed to him so much more than many other places he has visited that he is still here and says he has extended his stay for one week. "I came to stay just a day and pass on, but Victoria got me and I'm still enjoying it," he explained.

VICTOR EDMUNDS IS ACCORDED OVATION

Victoria Tenor Gives Recital
on Eve of Departure

A singer at his best; an accompanist in perfect accord with the soloist; a programme of the highest standard; and an audience thrilled, responsive and enthusiastic, were the attributes of an evening on Saturday at the Memorial Hall when Victoria's favorite and favored tenor, and for that matter, Canada's too, Victor Edmunds, gave a recital on the eve of his departure for another busy season in Southern parts. It was such an occasion that those present in the theatre box, the pleasure of his listeners, too, was the greater from the fact that Mr. Edmunds has grown from childhood to man's estate in a career of his choice. Indeed it can be truly said that he has "arrived." The goal of his ambitions has been reached, and he can now be counted one of the foremost tenors of the present time. Perhaps the day is not far distant when those who are following his career will read of his towering figure of the operatic and concert world. His singing is astonishing in its freedom and his sure intonation is remarkable. His repertoire is of beautiful quality, robust, yet rich and always under cultured control, and his well-chosen programme of technique and sympathetic style. He is a singer who thrills and gives joy and delight. When he plunges into the great operatic arias he carries his hearers irresistibly along with his dramatic intensities and the supreme brilliance of his singing.

Those present, prepared as they were for greater things, were the more astonished and were completely swept away by the increased powers of his art. His voice retains its freshness, but he has gained much in flexibility, artistry and interpretative powers, and no matter where he is tones they issue forth in such evenness and purity that makes this a predominant feature of his singing.

As has already been said his programme was selected with much adroitness. It combined six groups, comprising fifteen numbers, opening with "Una Follia Lagrima," from Donizetti's "L'Elisir D'Amore," and concluding with Handel's famous aria "Sound an Alarm," from "Judas Macabaeus," both of which were living examples of the singer's power and brilliancy. The latter was a particularly inspiring effort. The four Schubert songs were perfect gems, perhaps the most liked being "Restless Love," and "Her Portrait." Meyerbeer was represented in his grand aria "O Paradiso" from "Africana." Certainly has Grace A. Freesby given to the vocal world four delightful numbers, and splendidly did the singer rise to great heights in depicting the different moods of the North, the West and East Wind. This cycle found much favor among those present as did the group that followed it, "Could I (Toot)," beautiful in its planissimo, the extreme high notes, and Pearl Curran's dramatically scored song "Life," and equally dramatically given.

At the conclusion of the final number, the great Handel aria, the audience, which throughout had been unusually responsive and demonstrative, clamored for additional numbers, and were rewarded in most liberal fashion with "Vesti la Giubba," from "Pagliacci," "La Donna e Mobile" from "Rigoletto," the great favorite "O Sole Mio," and "You in a Gondola."

The other additions to the programme being the "Drinking Song" from "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Take O Take Those Lips Away" (La Forge), "La Dancia," "Tarentella," "Love is the Wind" (McFadden) and Leon Cavalle's "Matinatta."

Mrs. Clifford Wain, the accompanist of the evening, never did better. She played as if inspired, and at all times unflatteringly and adroitly did she "follow" the singer with unerring precision and skill.

AT THE DOMINION THEATRE

Miss Ada Wise, a young Victoria singer of ability, is singing at the Dominion Theatre this week. Miss Wise, who has been a pupil of Jennings Burnett for the past two years, won the gold medal as a mezzo soprano at the B.C. musical festival recently held in Vancouver, singing as the test "Loreley," by Liszt. She also captured the prize of a silver cup for receiving the highest marks of any soloist. Her programme during the week's engagement will include the two popular ballads, "An Irish Love Song" and "Out of the Dust to You."

"I'LL SHOW YOU THE TOWN" SCORES NOTIFY FILM CONTEST EDITOR

Poets, Artists, Authors and Canny Scot Among the First to Seek Cash Prizes in Connection With Capital
Picture Contest; Real Estate Men Lead the Way; Sight-seeing Men Make Offers.

Since The Victoria Times Saturday announced three prizes of $5, $3 and $2 for the authors of the best letters on "I'll Show You the Town," Reginald Denny promises to be eclipsed. Half of Victoria apparently is not willing but anxious to appear in a similar role to the popular screen idol who stars in "I'll Show You the Town" at the Capital this week.

"Before we go any further," says one competitor. "Is it understood the winner has the same advantages as Denny has in the picture?" Denny it should be mentioned is cicerone to three beautiful women to whom he is host on a hilarious sight-seeing tour. Sightseeing men see in the contest an opportunity for some good advertising. Virtually every firm in town has entered with a letter pointing out that no one knows the town better than they do.

His tone, they say, and then proceed to quote rates.

RISE TO THE OCCASION
Enterprising real estate men in these stirring times spring to the occasion en bloc. If anyone doubts that they are prepared to "show you the town" it is only necessary to turn to their advertisements in to-day's issue.

Alderman Shanks breaks into poetry. Another competitor tells the story in cartoons. A cautious competitor whose name begins Mac first wants to know to whom he shows the town, and who "provides the bawbles." A public-spirited resident of Saanich offers to show anybody over that municipality. Others are indignant at being forced to write on Victoria under the caption of "I'll Show You the Town" and confine themselves to 250 words.

This is the greatest town on the continent. I don't know which town Denny showed, but this is the one he should have shown," says another writer. "I'll show it."

The contest is on until Wednesday night. By then the contest editor must judge from the rapidly growing pile of letters in time for Manager Cliff Denham to invite the winners to visit the Capitol, see the picture and receive their prizes before the cheering throng that is anticipated will pack the theatre.

THREE MEN SCALDED IN KETCHUP MILL

Chatham, Ont., Sept. 14.—Three employees of the Libby, McNeill & Libby Company were scalded, one probably fatally, and several others had a narrow escape when a huge cooking kettle containing tomato ketchup exploded in the local canning factory here Saturday afternoon.

A young playwright rushed into a manager's office and said he had written a play which would make the latter's fortune. He was asked to give an outline of the plot, which he did as follows: "The scene is midnight. A large mansion surrounded by a high wall forms the background. Two burglars are seen to be creeping stealthily towards the house. They scale the wall and pry open a window of the house. Just as they enter the room the clock strikes one."

"Which one?" asked the manager.

MOUNTAIN LIONS!

Stealthy, like thieves in the night, preying upon the man who lay sleeping!

But this man was his friend! Had saved his life! The life of a wild horse who knew no master; had never tasted the lash!

But "Black Cyclone" watched and waited!—Then, with hoofs of death, plunged into their tawny midst to repay the debt he owed this man!

TEMPORARY PEACE

This strange trio—Madge, Patricia, and Stanley Cartwright—took up their life at the Marquise de Marzel's villa by the sea with little friction as could be expected in so novel a situation.

There was less open rebellion from Madge and Cartwright than Patricia had anticipated. Three factors accounted for this:

In the first place, the two elopers recognized the inexcusable of Patricia's determination to remain with them. In the second place, Madge, reckless and spoiled as she was, had been sobered by her husband's suicide, for which she was wholly responsible. The third contributing cause to the easy adjustment of the situation was Madame de Marzel herself.

This petite, aristocratic lady accepted the queer arrangement calmly. She was outwardly the gracious hostess who entertained at her villa two women and a man. Her blue refusal to recognize the relationship existing between the man and one of the women was disarming and quieting—both to Cartwright and Madge.

How could they, in the face of this superb courtesy, flaunt their affair openly? How could they bluster and storm against Patricia's determined presence when their hostess's manner insisted silently that they were her guests because they were friends of her friend—nothing more. Not for an instant were they allowed to feel that they were elopers who paid for refuge in a pleasant, secluded spot until such a time as Alma Cartwright might decide to release her husband and permit him to marry Madge.

Whatever discussions, whatever fuming rebellion, Madge and Cartwright may have indulged in between themselves during their rambling along the beach and over the hills, or on the afternoon motor drives they took in the direction of Cannes, neither the Marquise nor Patricia knew.

Paul Bannister's suicide had affected them both. It was the last thing they had anticipated. It reminded them that tragedy stalks the footsteps of people who did the sort of lawless thing they had done. They were willing to remain a little quiet for a time and Madame de Marzel's villa offered a charming retreat.

That this situation, this quiet existence, couldn't last long, neither foresaw despite their worldliness. Once the first novelty of life with Cartwright had worn off, Madge would soon begin to crave the gaiety and excitement that had formed her life. Cartwright would miss his clubs, association with men of his kind, pretty women to guage with his connoisseur's eye.

But, for the present, they were content.

Patricia, too, was content. She was fond of Madame de Marzel. They had similar, quiet tastes. Day after day they sat in the pretty garden whose terraces ran almost to the sea and talked on the busy war days in Paris when they had served together. With embroidery frames in their laps, or sometimes a book which remained unopened, they passed pleasant, chatty afternoons under the shade of the mimosa, while the blue Mediterranean rolled its lazy waves ceaselessly, monotonously, musically against the sandstone shore.

The renewal of her friendship with Madame de Marzel had done much to ease the sorrow in Patricia's heart over the death of Paul Bannister. The little Marquise was something of a philosopher. She had also suffered deeply when her husband lost his life in the war. With her kindly sympathy, she encouraged Patricia to talk about the man she had loved, unrequited, and without knowledge. It helped Patricia just to confide in her. She had kept that love of hers hidden for so long.

Gradually, as she listened to Honore de Marzel, she came to find happiness in memory, rather than sorrow or bitterness.

U.S. Army Head Likes Victoria; Takes Two Salmon

"We've traveled the world over, and Victoria for scenery, climate and natural advantages stands out above other places."

This is what General Scriven of Washington, D.C., had to say to-day as his holiday here came to an end, and he started for home. Mrs. Scriven has been with him. They have been staying at Glenisland Inn and the Empress Hotel.

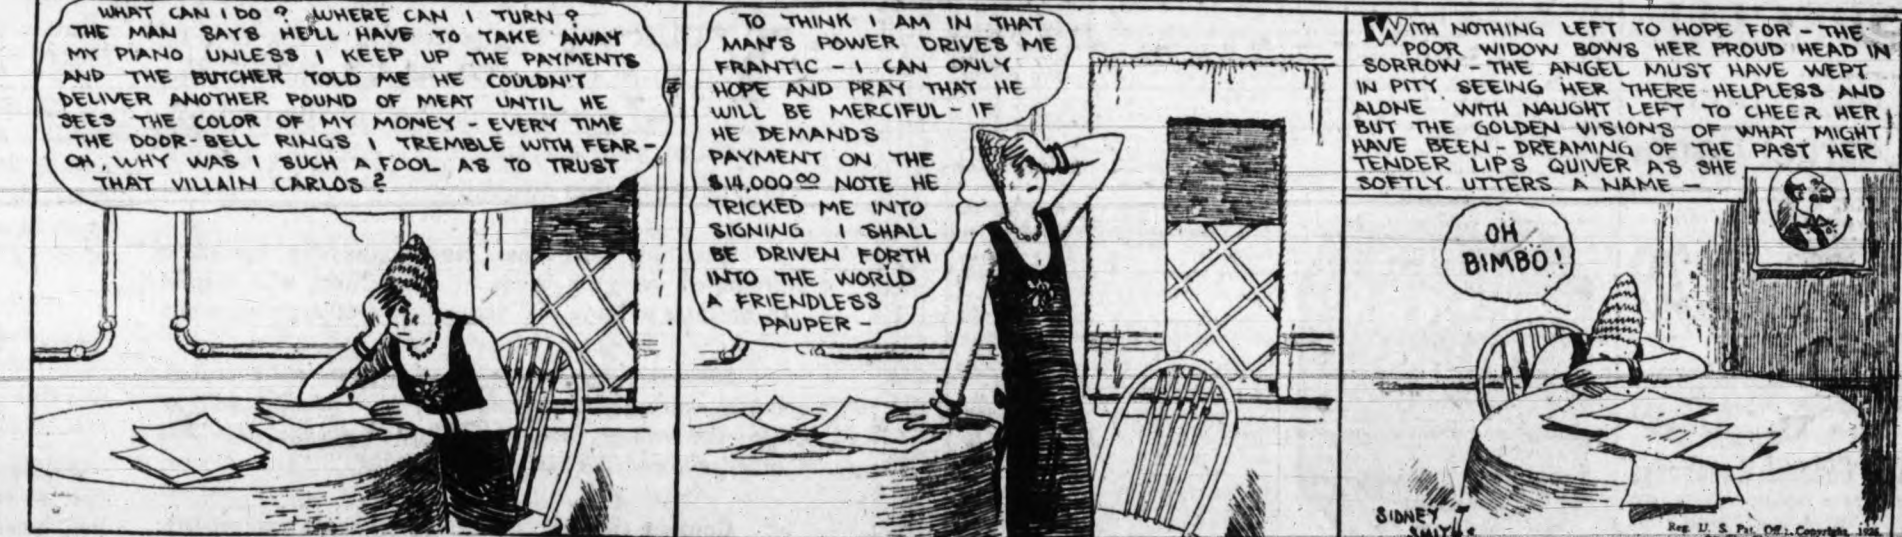

Last evening they returned to the city from Cowichan Bay, where they spent the week-end in salmon trolling as the guests of George A. Bucklin, United States Consul and Mrs. Bucklin, and E. P. F. Roe, an authority on sport fishing on this island. They caught two large salmon, while five others they had in their lines got away. There were forty boats fishing in the bay in front of Buena Vista at daylight Sunday morning.

Sound policy is never at variance with substantial justice.

Bonn, Germany, Sept. 14.—After eleven years' imprisonment in Russia, during which he made several unsuccessful attempts to escape, Paul Cons, the sculptor, finally has reached Bonn. During the Russian campaign of the German army in August, 1914, Cons was wounded and taken prisoner. When he recovered he declares he was assigned to a Russian working squad and put at hard labor. His repeated attempts to escape were frustrated until this year, when Cons and three companions succeeded in crossing the border.
